UNA BELLEZZA DISTINTIVA E AUTOREVOLE, RIGOROSAMENTE A PRODUZIONE ITALIANA

Purezza delle forme, cura per il dettaglio e vocazione a innovare sempre

Lusso, calma e voluttà: una formula resa celebre da Baudelaire e da Matisse riassume lo sguardo di DOM Edizioni sul bello e sugli ambienti da vivere.

Purezza delle forme, paziente cura per il dettaglio e vocazione a innovare guidano la celebrazione che DOM Edizioni fa della speciale attitudine italiana per un gusto equilibrato ma di spiccato carattere.

Fondata nel 2011 da Domenico Mula, la maison opera dalle due sedi di Cesena e Milano: lo showroom romagnolo, nella cornice di una splendida chiesa sconsacrata, è un ambiente suggestivo e ammaliante; lo spazio milanese è un raffinato appartamento nella zona del Quadrilatero della Moda, un vero punto di riferimento sempre a disposizione di architetti e interior designer. In azienda sta crescendo già la seconda generazione: i due figli del direttore artistico, Ludovica nel ruolo di chief designer e brand strategist, Filippo a indirizzare la gestione commerciale in Italia e UAE, tracciano oggi la strada futura di DOM Edizioni insieme a lui.

La ricerca creativa di Domenico Mula parte da un'indagine meticolosa sulla ragion d'essere di un oggetto, e su una visione dei contesti che potranno accoglierlo. L'esplorazione delle forme combina la conoscenza delle basi storiche dell'arredamento, sostenuta da un'intima familiarità con gli archivi e con le grandi tradizioni progettuali. Una sensibilità unica per una bellezza distintiva e autorevole è l'ingrediente chiave che completa la formula.

Le collezioni sono interamente realizzate in Italia, dove chi lavora i materiali ha una capacità ineguagliata di trarre il massimo dalle loro caratteristiche.

Ciascun mobile compone il tassello di una prospettiva coerente, improntata a un senso di piacere intenso e rilassato. DOM Edizioni porta negli spazi residenziali, negli hotel, negli yacht un lusso autentico e privo di ostentazione: calmo e lussuoso.

LA MAISON

A DISTINCTIVE AND AUTHORITATIVE BEAUTY, STRICTLY MADE IN ITALY

Purity of form, attention to the detail and a vocation to always innovate

Luxury, calm and voluptuousness: the formula made famous by Baudelaire and Matisse sums up DOM Edizioni's view of beauty and living spaces.

The purity of forms, a patient attention to detail and a vocation to innovate guide the celebration that DOM Edizioni makes of the special Italian attitude for a balanced taste but with a strong character.

Founded in 2011 by Domenico Mula, the maison operates from its two headquarters in Cesena and Milan. The space in Cesena is located in the frame of a magnificent deconsecrated church, a suggestive and enchanting environment. While the Milanese showroom is a refined apartment in the area of the Fashion District, a real reference point always available to architects and interior designers. The second generation is already growing in the Company: the two sons of the Art Director. Ludovica in the role of chief designer and brand strategist; Filippo to direct the commercial management in Italy and UAE. Today they trace the future path of DOM Edizioni with Domenico Mula.

Domenico Mula's creative research starts from a meticulous investigation of the raison d'être of an object, and a vision of the contexts that will accommodate it. The exploration of forms combines knowledge of the historical basis of furnishing, supported by an intimate familiarity with archives and great design traditions. A unique sensitivity for a distinctive and authoritative beauty is the key ingredient that completes the formula. The know-how of the best craftsmen supports creativity.

The collections are entirely made in Italy, where those who work the materials have an unparalleled ability to make the most of their characteristics.

Each piece of furniture is part of a coherent perspective, marked by an intense and relaxed sense of pleasure. DOM Edizioni brings to residential spaces, hotels and yachts an authentic luxury without ostentation: calm and voluptuous.
